'New Look' Fashion Show at El Camino

"The New Look at El Camino" was the theme of a fashion show June 2 in the El Camino College Campus Center by the home economics department.

Students enrolled in clothing and textile classes will model garments which they have made in the past two semesters.

"There will be a large variety of clothing including blouses and play clothes; cotton, wool and silk dresses; and suits and coats," Mrs. Hattie Davis, clothing construction instructor, announced.

Mrs. Davis said, "We shall have some very elegant evening dresses if they are finished in time."

Narrator for the event will be Mrs. Daisy Garneau, a student from Canada who is attending the college for one semester. Mrs. Garneau has had previous experience in public speaking, having presented many lectures on first aid to people in rural communities and lumber camps of Canada where medical assistance was not always readily available.

To a background of music Miss Janice Harris, Miss Beverley Woolwine, Miss Marlene Jolly, Miss Farideh Khazani, an Iranian exchange student, Miss Frances Ruiz, Mrs. Wilma Kearney, Mrs. Frances Kline, Miss Arnelia Gonzales, Miss Rita Crowell, Mrs. Eleanor Jaskowski, Miss Judy Mansfield, Miss Charlotte Donica, Miss Marilyn Moss and Miss Janice White will model garments they have made.

Also modeling will be Mrs. Billie Gaynor, Miss Evaun Gatena, Mrs. Genevieve Lowe, Mrs. Loretta Foster and her daughter Kathy, Miss Donna Butters, Mrs. Mary Killo, Miss Natalie Mulovich, Mrs. Yola Gerst, Miss JoAnn Johnson, Mrs. Valoye Olson, Mrs. Cy Skinner and Miss Charlotte Scala.

The public is invited to the fashion show and a tea will be served by the models following the show. Members of the college foods classes will prepare the refreshments.

Junior Charm Class to Model Fashions

The junior charm class of the Torrance YWCA, 2320 Carson st., will present a fashion show and program of entertainment for friends and relations on Friday at 4:30 p. m. Fashion commentator for the event will be Mrs. Juanita Bereda of Rolling Hills, who has conducted the sessions on poise and basics of modeling.

During the program, Mrs. Nina Haddock, Y-Teen Director, will sing selections from Broadway musicals.

The junior charmers are modeling sports, party, night and school clothes. Friends and members of the YWCA are invited to attend.

Billie Jean Melton-Richard Bolton Wed in First Methodist Church

Miss Billie Jean Melton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Melton, 23701 S. Western ave., became the bride of Richard Bolton in an evening ceremony May 30 in the First Methodist Church. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ancie Bolton of Paramount.

The bride walked up the ribboned aisle with her father, groomed in white taffeta ballerina length dress with long sleeves which came to a point at her wrist, and little Peter Pan collar. The very full skirt had pleated front and her lace trimmed veil fell from a lace and pearl crown. She carried white orchids and lilies of the valley atop her white Bible.

Large baskets of white flowers adorned the altar before which the Rev. John Taylor officiated at the double ring ceremony. Maid of honor was Diane Berry in pink full dr. dress and carrying a crescent bouquet of gladioli. Bridesmaids Carolyn Wood and Dodie Lindgren were similarly gowned.

Little Janice Bailey was flower girl in dainty pink dotted Swiss over taffeta and carried a basket of flowers.

Don Plog was best man and ushers were Ken Bolter, Larry Melton and Steve Richardson.

The bride's mother wore lavender and the groom's mother wore pink.

Following a reception in the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds went on a trip to Green Valley. They will make their new home in Compton.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and worked for Herman Miller Plymouth before her marriage.

The groom was graduated from Paramount High School and works for Pacific Telephone Co.

Torrance High PTA to Sponsor All-Night Graduation Party

The PTA of Torrance High School has completed plans for the all-night graduation party June 12 it is sponsoring again this year, according to announcement by Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool, chairman. Tickets went on sale last week and will be available at the Shack for seniors and their guests.

Mrs. Vanderpool, assisted by Mrs. Hal Smith, co-chairman, and George Mayer, student chairman, has arranged for a gala night at the Pacific Coast Club for approximately 300 students from 10:30 p. m. to 5 o'clock the following morning. Ames, W. W. Jackson, Dale Mead, O. O. Clayton, Jack Carter, James Bishop and V. A. Sherer have assisted with plans and the sale of tickets. Gloria Puncher and Mark Eubank, students, as well as the senior council of the school, advised by Mrs. Anne S. Graves, have worked in cooperation with the PTA to make this a memorable evening for the graduating class of 1958.

Chicken Dinner

On the program will be a chicken dinner at 11 followed by dancing to the music of the Mel-Tones from 12 to 3 and swimming in the pool from 1 to 2. Thomas Hammock, former Tartar and now a student at El Camino College, will be one of the lifeguards. Pingpong and other games are planned. Breakfast will be served at 4 to bring an end to an evening of fun and safety.

Chaperones

Adults attending the party as chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crossman, Mrs. Joe Cannon, Mrs. Mary Balow, Mrs. Helen Rogan, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hiebert, Mr. and Mrs. William Stoly, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hinshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Roberts, Mrs. James Bishop, Mrs. V. A. Sherer, Mrs. Leslie Punder, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Clayton, Mrs. Jack Carter, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ostlund, and Rex Day, Officers Richard Thompson and Leo Gonzales of the Torrance Police Department, will assist the chaperones.

The PTA has been assisted in financing this party by the Rotary, Kiwanis, Junior Women's Club, Senior Women's Club, Pilot Club and units of the Torrance Council PTA. Contributions have also been received from Mrs. Evelyn Carr and N. Postoff. Because of PTA policy, no written requests for assistance in this project are made and therefore those donations that are made are more than welcome.

Plan Doll Show at Lomita Park

Dolls of every description, old and new, will be on display June 14 during the annual doll show at Lomita Park. Girls may bring their dolls at 10 a. m. for the judging and dolls will be on display from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m.

Some of the many prize classifications will be oldest doll, tallest, smallest best handmade, largest collection, foreign doll, most played with, baby doll, and most unusual doll.
